

MTV's Director

Denise Fenton, a veteran of over 300 shows, has a Bachelor's degree from CSU Fullerton in History, a teaching credential from CSU San Bernardino, and post graduate work at CSU Fullerton. All her friends went "off to Broadway" (all made it!), but Denise stayed here to be practical and be a teacher!

Her first year teaching, she saw that the kids "needed something" to counteract the gangs and drugs prevalent in San Bernardino. So she started an after school drama program, where she produced and directed "Once Upon a Mattress" with 7th and 8th graders at Shandin Hills Intermediate School. It was a huge success, and the rest, as they say, is history.

Denise later tired of the commute to San Bernardino, so she started a costume rental and theatre here in beautiful O.C., a place where families could do theatre together. Entering her 14th successful season, she has directed over 100 shows the theatre has produced and, with the Lord's help, will keep going strong for another 100.

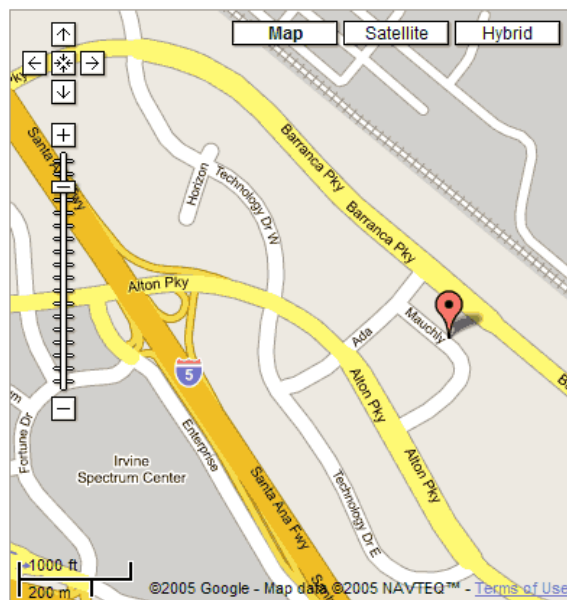

She hopes you enjoy your time with us!
